

“ I want my sisters
to have the best life they can.”

Tori Denison (center) | Spokane Tribe of Indians

Fentanyl is taking Native lives. We are taking action.

We are talking about the unpredictable drug supply.

We are carrying naloxone (also called Narcan).

We are finding culturally grounded treatment
and recovery.

Learn Tori's story. She and her sisters Clara and Sophia Denison (above) talk regularly about fentanyl after their mom died of an overdose.
